Academic Programs (Year/Semester)

Bienvenue à Nice!

Sweet Briar College has been committed to providing students an intensive immersion experience in Paris since 1948. We are now opening a new program in Nice. Our academic programs are designed for students who have completed the equivalent of five semesters of college French and have maintained a GPA of 3.0 in French (note: a 3.5 GPA is required for spring students). Students may choose to study with us for a full year or a semester. We also offer students an intensive summer program in Paris.

Timeline:

- Year and fall applications are due by March 15; participants depart in late August
- Spring 2011 applications are due by Oct. 15; participants depart in mid-January
- See our Web site for more information and to download application: www.jyf.sbc.edu

Orientation:

- Intensive French language review and cultural information
- Schedule divided between classroom instruction and cultural excursions

Classes:

- Extensive variety of regular university courses in the sciences, math, arts and humanities available at three Nice campuses of the Sophia Antipolis University.
- Study with JYF in our intensive seminars
- Additional courses and ateliers are available at other private institutions
