COURSES OFFERED IN FRENCH

6-9 CREDIT HOURS

1. Language: Advanced Composition and Conversation (3 credits)
The goal of this course is to develop students’ ability to express themselves correctly in written and spoken French. Students will work with specific constructions on the sentence level as well as short essays on a given theme. In-class correction of common errors will often lead to quick reviews of particular grammatical points.

2. Art History: 19th- and 20th-century French Art (3 credits)
This course is designed for non-majors who wish to benefit from the opportunity to explore Paris’ magnificent museum collections, in particular the Louvre and the Musée d’Orsay. Students will learn how to read a painting as well as the historical context of the works studied.

3. Culture and Civilization: History of Paris through its Monuments (3 credits)
This course offers the opportunity to study the history of France as reflected in the architecture and monuments of its capital city. Classroom lectures are supplemented by onsite visits of numerous monuments and neighborhoods.

4. Cinema and Literature: French Literature and Cinematic Adaptations (3 credits)
In this course, students will analyze several classic and more recent French films in relation to the literary works on which they are based. Films studied include original screenplays and adaptations based on novels, fairy tales and plays.

The aim of the JYF Summer Program is to enable students with intermediate or advanced skills in French to progress to the next level of proficiency while developing firsthand knowledge of and an appreciation for French culture. We offer a 5-week intensive program of instruction with an outstanding team of native French professors, affiliated with our year and semester JYF program. Our offices and classrooms are located in the heart of the Latin Quarter of Paris, near the beautiful Jardin du Luxembourg in the 6th arrondissement.

Students in the JYF Summer Program normally live with host families in Paris. Our families are carefully selected and evaluated each year. Living with a host family offers students the opportunity for additional practice with conversational French and experience with everyday French culture.

Classes meet every weekday in the morning and afternoon. Students can elect to enroll for 6 or 9 credit hours.

Students who successfully complete the summer program may be eligible for the semester or year program.
